THE CONVERSATION

Anne Brodie

2015, 03:38

The Conversation is part of the artist's project Dead Mother, making visible the silent, long-term implications of one's mother's death experienced in adolescence.

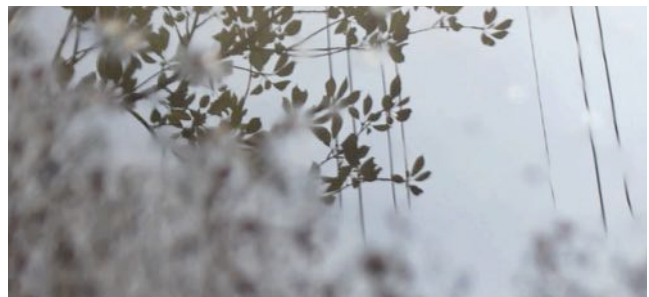

DROWN

Sean Mullan

2015, 06:22

Drown magnifies a story of life after death, before and in between, exploring the anxieties of self-preservation in a world of perpetual death.

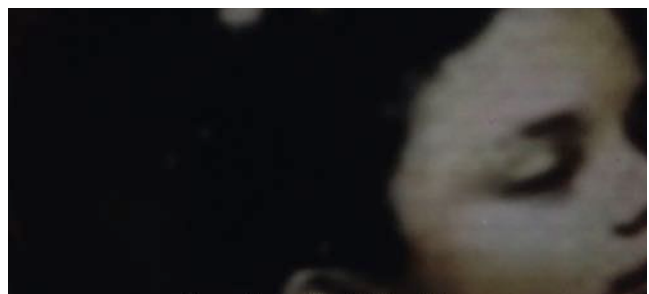

A WINDOW OUT OF BOGOTÁ

Gabriella Sonabend

2015, 14:48

A Window Out Of Bogotá is an insight into one Colombian's view of her country. The interviewee shares thoughts regarding freedom, gender expectations, national memory and trauma.

STUMBLINGBLOCK

Mitra Saboury

2013, 06:37

Through a variety of media, the artist fuses her body with the street by interacting with its cracks and crevices, confronting the physical restrictions and confinements of such architectural parameters.

THE WORDS HEAR THE LIGHT

Diego Fiori & Olga Pohankova

2015, 17:42

According to medieval philosophers, being a subject is an insubstantial way of being that does not exist in itself. In this film, the nature of the image is questioned. How can a mirror that is two-dimensional project three-dimensional images?
